The London Heathrow Airport Centre is set in a three-storey modern building five minutes from Heathrow's Terminal 5. Set in secluded grounds, the building has an impressive high-ceilinged reception and there are views of the planes taking off and landing from some offices. The building is home to a variety of office-based businesses including those working in IT, transport and freight, while the surrounding area is popular with airport-related businesses. Close by car from Terminal 5, there is also easy access to the London Underground, Heathrow Express and the M25 and M4 motorways. It is a short drive to cafes, restaurants, bars and shopping in West Drayton.
